Kem, (Hey Dawt!)

Why does your yearbook smell so sexy? I think I'm in love (sniff sniff snort)!

So far, this has been the most funnest year yet, and it's just going to get betterens.

When you're old enough, read my romance novel entitled "The Freezing Blob". Sigh...

where can thrills be found in the dead of fall?

Oh, would that it were eternal summer! Why do we remain encumbered by this selfish world to stagnate? "What are the roots that clutch, what branches grow out of this stony rubbish? Son of man, you cannot say, or guess, for you know only a heap of broken images..." Melancholy, eh? Revolt! Freedom! Liberation!

Love, peace, truth, and red pajamas!

The Story Of M.H.S. And The Burg Across The River

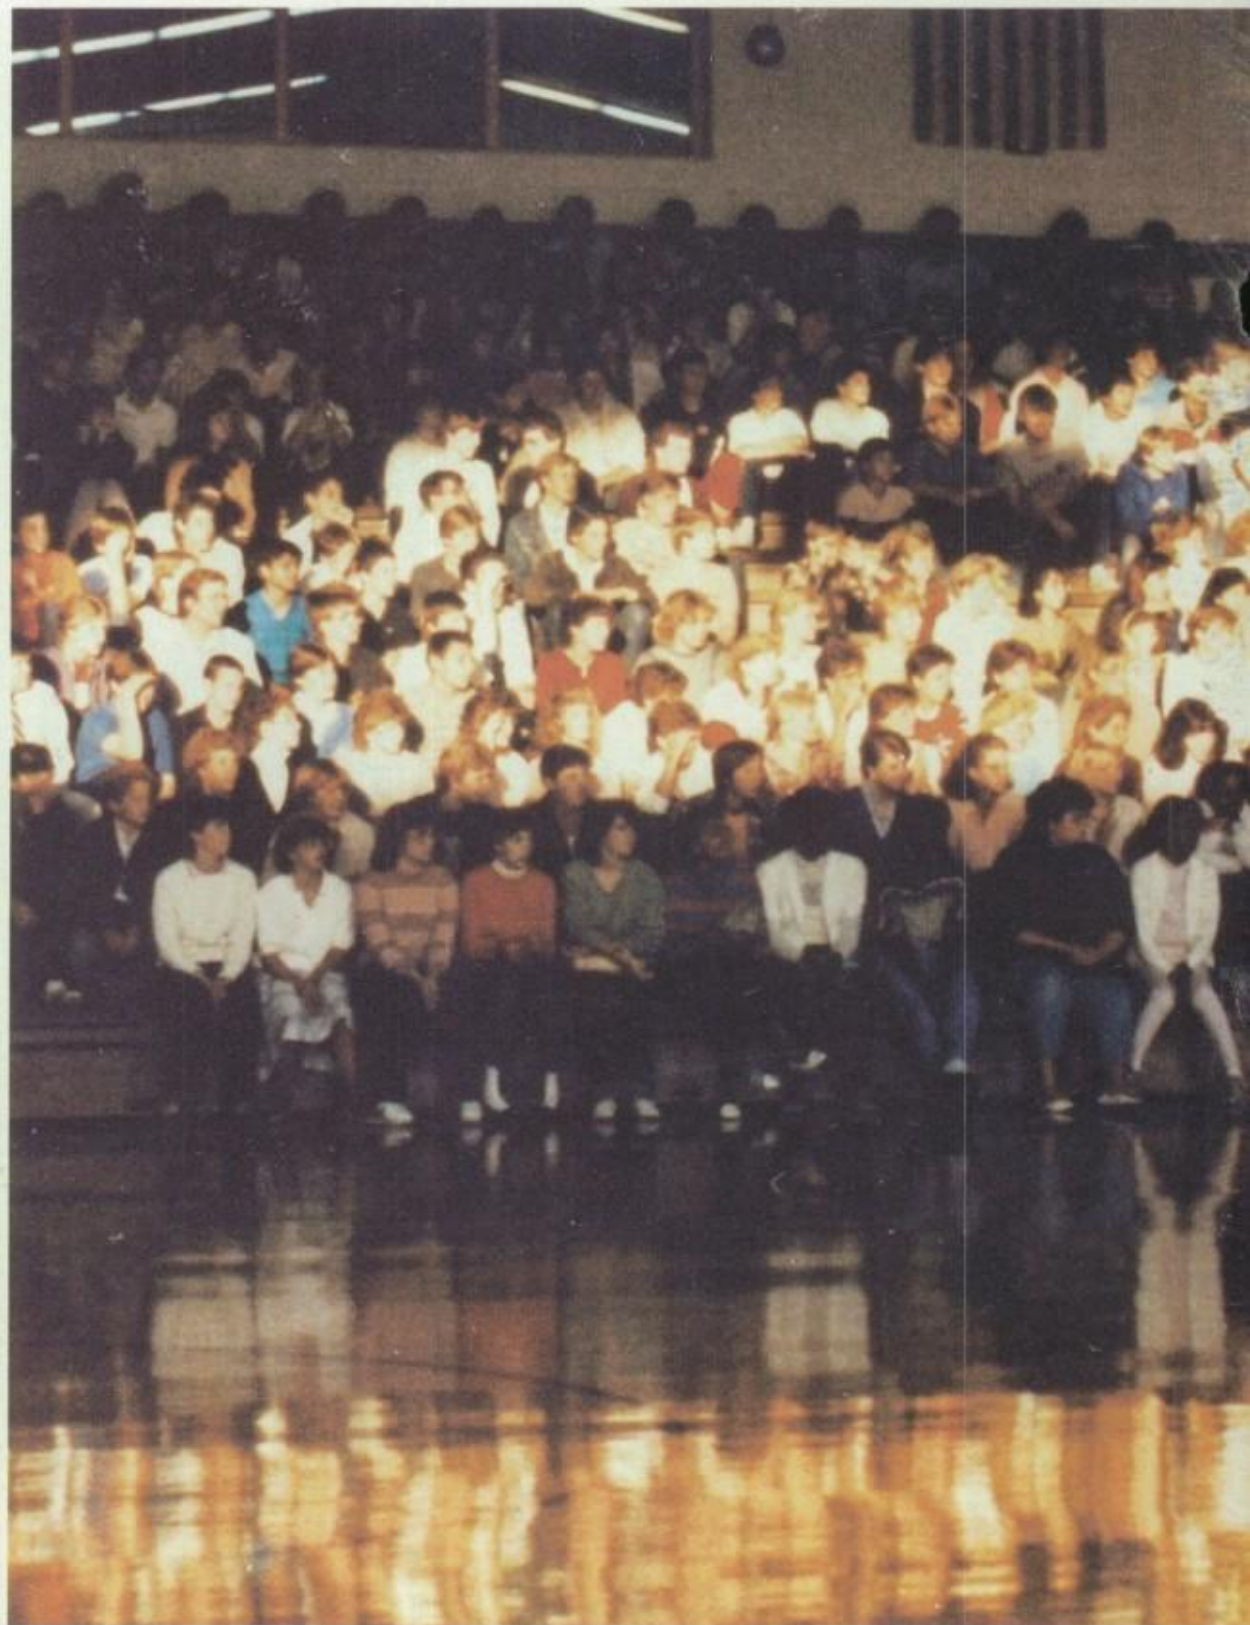

"Go Maumee! Beat P-Burg!" chants a group of elementary school children from the stands.

There is no doubt about it that the rivalry between Maumee and that unmentionable across the river is deep rooted. No one really knows when it began and the ending of the rivalry is unforeseeable.

Much more than athletics are involved. Student enthusiasm is heightened during Spirit Week and the urge for revenge lasts until basketball season.

The perpetual circle of the Bell between Maumee and Perysburg is similar to other schools' traditions in thousands of towns across the country. It is one most unforgettable traditions of high school life.

Clockwise: the crowd of students ready to cheer on the Panthers; pre-game warm ups; a new tradition — the Panther mascot; an old tradition — the senior gang; and now the Maumee Panthers' starting line-up.

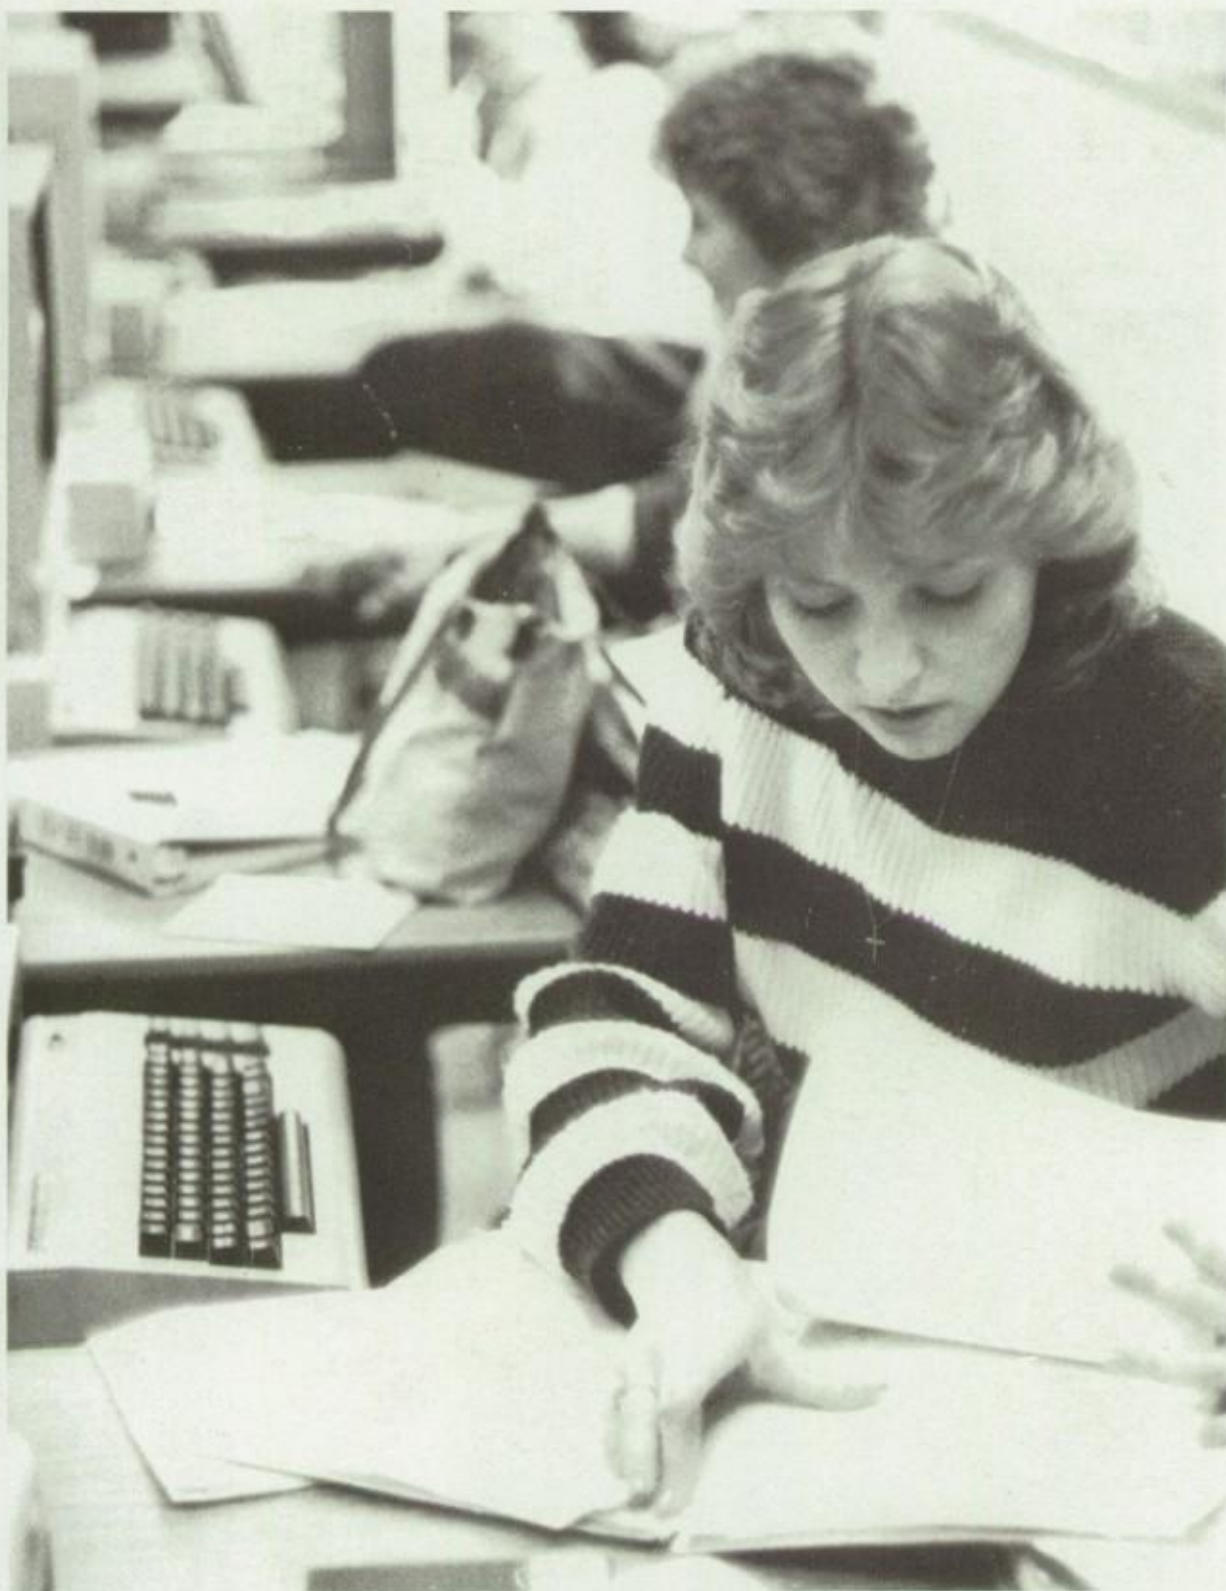

Sophocles To Sartre: Academic Traumas

Four years of high school translates into 1,080 hours. That is 1,080 class periods filled with notes, gym class exercises, tests, filmstrips, quizzes and exams.

Obviously, academics are the first and foremost reason people attend school but sometimes that is difficult to remember. Towards the end of the senior year it is incredibly difficult to remember.

Some classes are exciting and challenging, the classes that we will remember when pulling the yearbook off the shelf as our 25 year reunion approaches. Of course, there are some classes that will hopefully remain in our subconscious on our future trips down memory lane, but even the worst classes teach something — if only that you are not suited for the higher mathematics or hot metal welding.

Celebrate Good Times! Come On!

Maumee sure knows how to throw a party. Whether it is for an athletic event, the crowning of the Homecoming Queen or the One Hundredth graduation, CELEBRATION is a key factor in the life of a high school student.

Friends and Fridays spell the beginning of the weekend and a break from academia. Students venture into the world of the bizarre, the supernatural. In fact, sometimes the weekend does end up like the Twilight Zone. Mondays are always a recount of weekend fun. Memories are made every minute in the halls of Maumee High.

Clockwise From Above Left: seniors getting ready for M.H.S. 100; a group of revelers; Jodi Pratt; Parker Pollack; stream of seniors; Jill Borgess and friend; the Panther celebrates.

The Envelope Please . . .

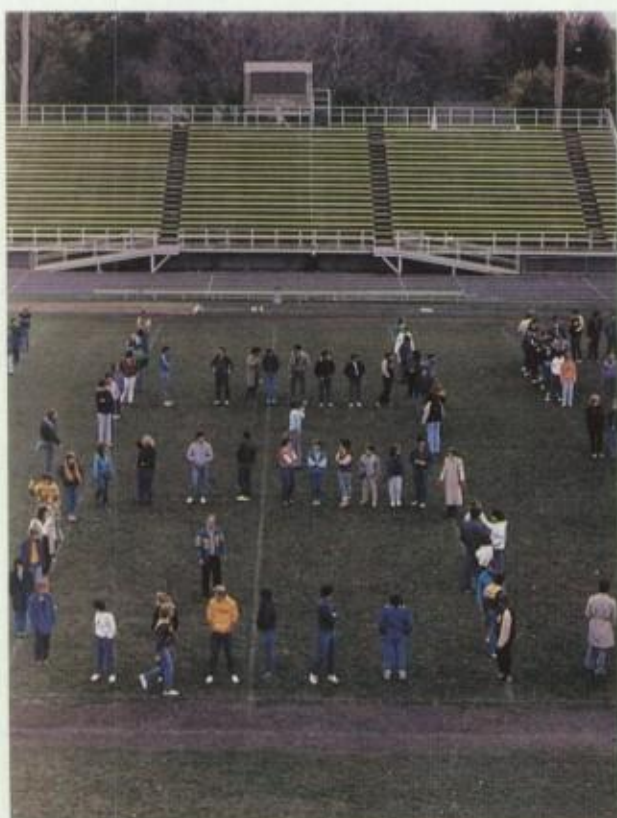

There are 263 people in the graduating class but only 30 wear gold cords at the commencement ceremony. Only five people get to start in each basketball game and there is only one Homecoming Queen each year.

These are the types of honors and awards for which students spend hours in pursuit. The grueling 6:00 A.M. softball practices, the all-nighters to finish the term paper on time and the voice lessons to try for a part in the musical are a few examples.

Being recognized for excellence is gratifying for both the student and the school. The Maumee City School District takes great pride in the achievements of its students and faculty.

1147 Saco, Our Castle

Half of the time it feels like the heater is broken, lately there has been an abundance of tobacco in the drinking fountains and the wall in Mr. Repp's room fell out but the school building is still a second home to many.

The first high school was the building that is now Union Elementary School. Then it moved to where Gateway Middle School now stands until the final move.

The school encompasses more than the building where classes are held. 1147 Saco Street means everything from the "smoking area" to the football stadium.

Without passage of the 1985 school levy for building improvements, though, the building would have continued to deteriorate. The levy did pass, Mr. Repp's wall was replaced and things have pretty much returned to normal. The heater still needs help though.

Clockwise From Upper Left: another brick in the wall; the pressbox; campaigning for the levy; M.H.S.; Issue 14 — Thanks Maumee; the football field — scene of M.H.S. 100.

Time Honored Treasures

Commencement is the longest-standing tradition in Maumee High School's history. One hundred years ago, two women, Dora Lautzenheiser and Delta Donahue became the first graduating class.

Over the century, Maumee students have created hundreds of official and unofficial traditions. Homecoming, the National Honor Society Christmas College Tea and the Perrysburg football game are the outstanding traditions known to all.

More interesting, however, are the traditions that quietly go on year after year, unbeknownst to many. These include: studying Macbeth in Mr. Stephen's English class, the senior "gang," raiding Perrysburg before the big game, decorating lockers, faculty parties and the junior Honors English extended essay.

Let The Games Begin

And now, the time is near to embark into the realm of school life. By the time students are in high school, they have almost mastered this "Meeting of the Minds" which sometimes seems more like a "Meeting of the Mindless."

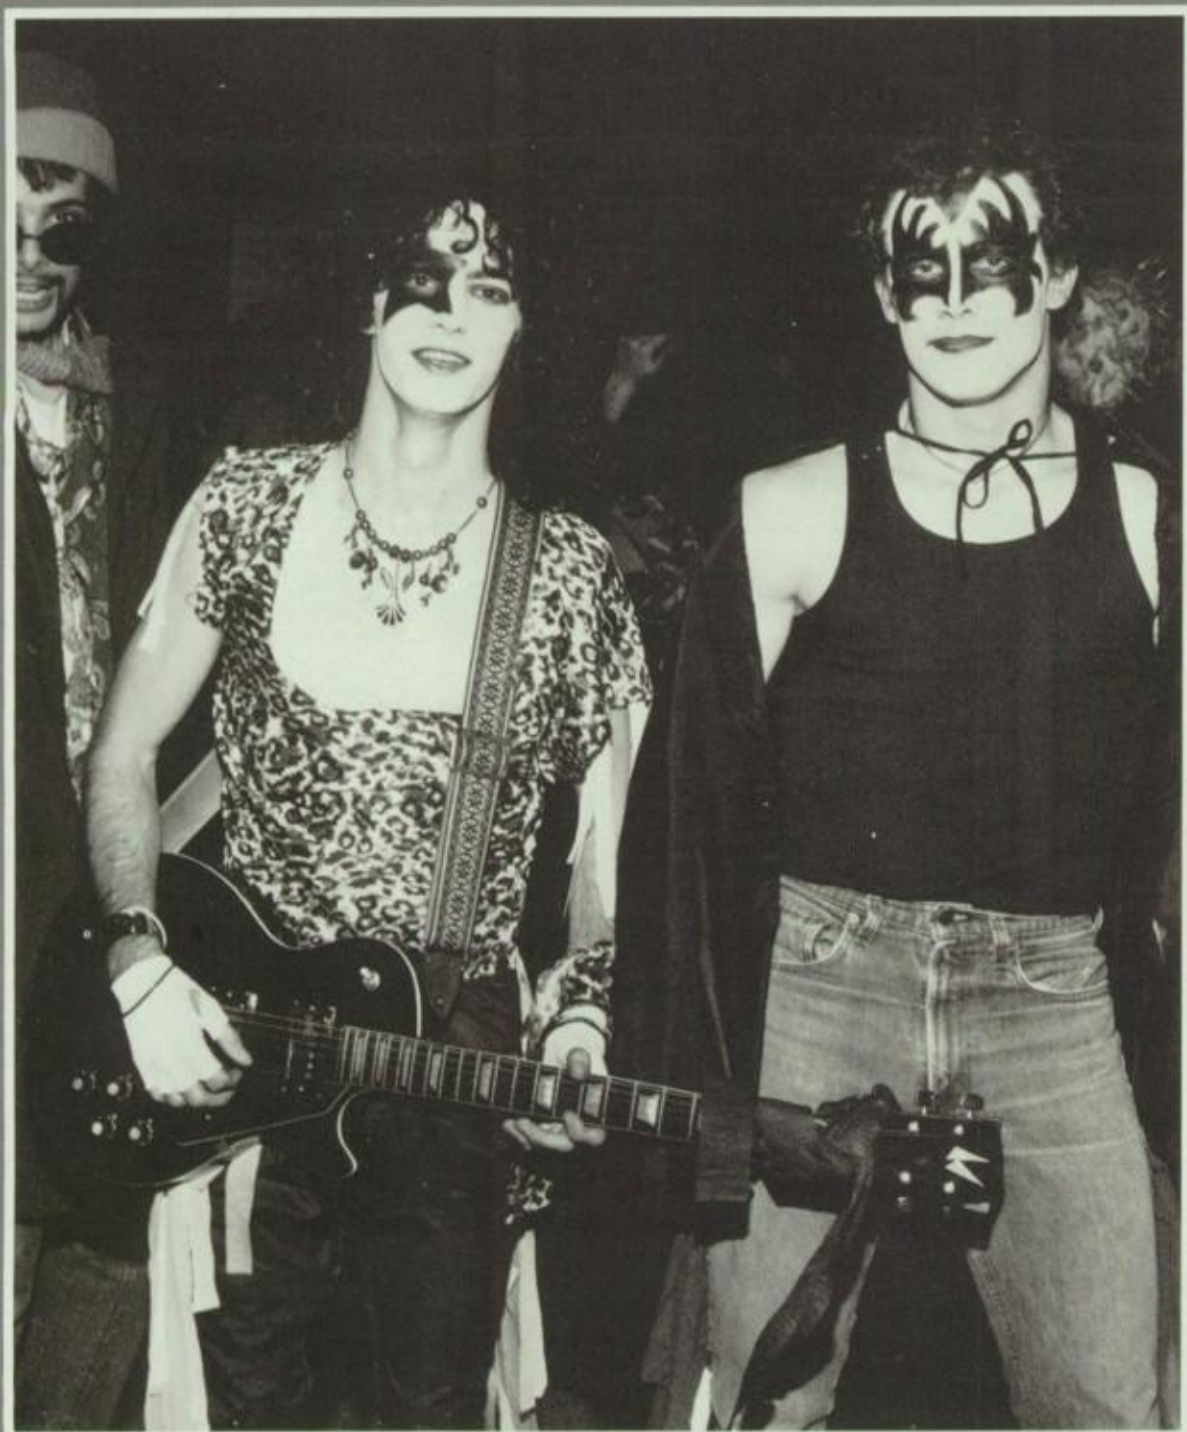

High school tries to prepare us for the "real world." This usually means finding a job or continuing education. Maumee produces good contenders in the "game of life" through a strong school system, both curricular and extra-curricular.

Commencement 100! The Pride of Maumee!

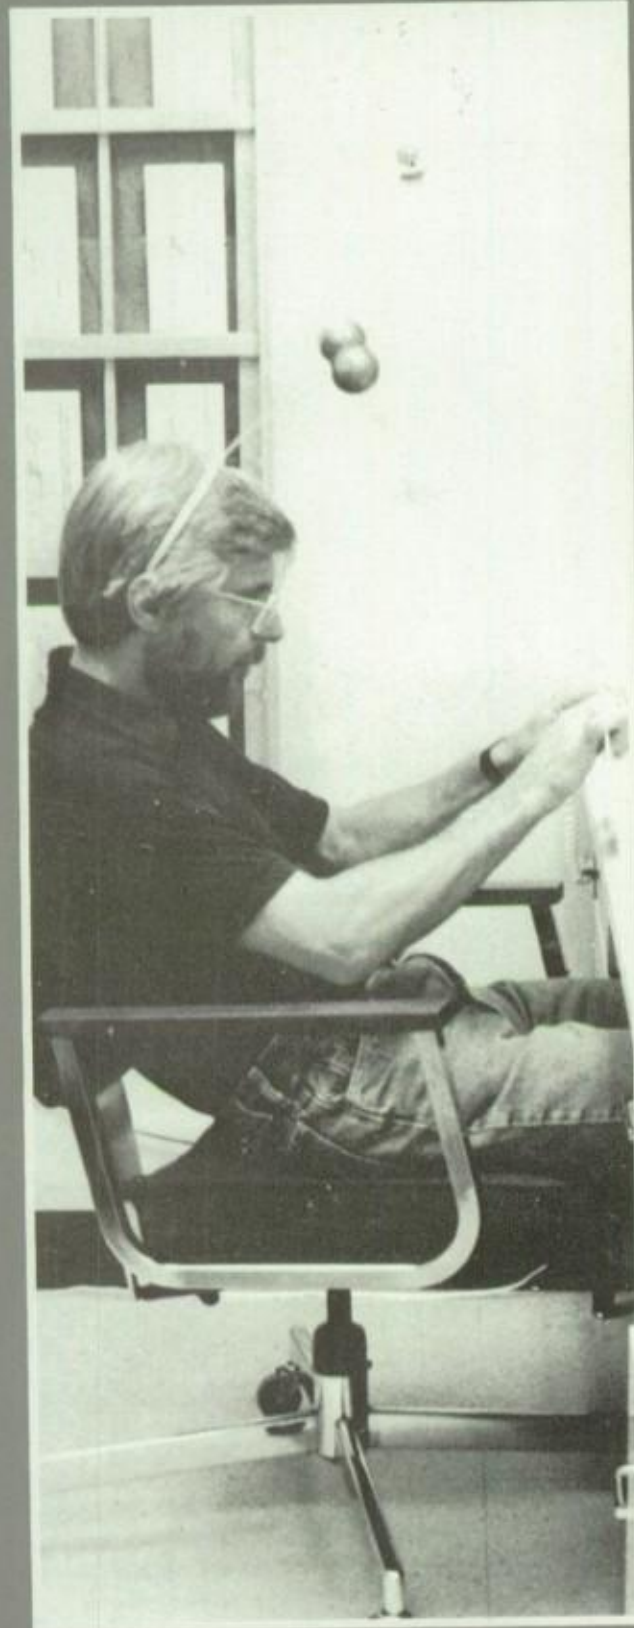

This year's commencement ceremony was heralded all year as the major event for Maumee High School. Leading up to the finale on Sunday, June 8th was a parade encompassing past and future graduating classes, members of the community and school bands visiting previous high school buildings and ending at the present high school stadium.

Faculty members participated in the centennial commencement ceremony as they marched in gowns with the graduates. The release of hundreds of purple and gold balloons marked with "100" lent a special festivity to a very special event.

Highlighting the commencement ceremony was Class President Amy Warren's address to the graduating class on "The University of Life."

Valedictorians were Maddalena Fanelli, Michelle Klement and Pam Niner.

Organizations

Student Council

The members of Student Council are one of the most visible groups in the school. They arrange dances and other activities such as the Red Cross Bloodmobile and at times act as representatives for student opinion. They also engage in a large number of community projects for charitable organizations.

This year's president was Dawn Blackburn. The club is advised by Mr. Frye and Mr. Martin.

Yearbook Staff

The yearbook staff is a small group of people linked by one common desire: to see the Reflector get finished. This may seem like a small feat but with all of the confusion, missed pictures, lost negatives and deadlines not met it is more like a small miracle.

This year's staff was a sort of floating one, people helping out whenever they could and perhaps some people not getting the recognition they deserve. Mainly it consisted of Maddalena Fanelli, art; Jeff Frantz, sports; Jenni Klever, underclassmen; Pam Niner, organizations; and Kathy Green, editor. The staff is advised by Mr. John Stephens.

Clockwise from top: Jeff Frantz, Amy Warren and Kathy Green; Kathy Green, editor; Pam Niner; Maddalena Fanelli, artist; Jenni Klever.

Yearbook Ad Staff

The yearbook staff is one of the most important clubs in the school. They are the people who sell the ads that make the Reflector possible. This year's competitors in the ad staff competition were allowed one day out of school to sell ads. Most teams also spent time after school to increase sales. The team of John Fulton and Larry Seaman won the competition, breaking previous sales records. Mayor Harry Barlos treated them to lunch to congratulate them.

Clockwise from top: Tammie Irwin and Stacey Smith at the annual ad staff breakfast; Chrissy Beaugrand and Anne Hover; the ad staff; Tonya Whalen and Martha Linden.

Drama Club

This year's Drama Club was, once again, a success. Many new faces and voices joined the ranks to help produce Peter Pan and Funny Girl. The club performed for the State Superintendent of Schools at a luncheon to celebrate the 100th commencement.

The officers chose "Night of 100 Stars" for the theme of this year's banquet which was held at Mrs. Myers condominium to award the Jonnies. It was heralded as the best banquet ever by director Jonnie Myers.

Clockwise from upper left: the Drama Club in all of its glory; officers JoAnne Allen, treasurer, Andi Veres, secretary, Kathy Green, vice-president, and Amy Warren, president; make-up; Joanne and Rich Seymour; Funny Girl; Mrs. Myers and Mrs. Stalter; Tiger Lily versus the pirates; the gang.

International Thespians

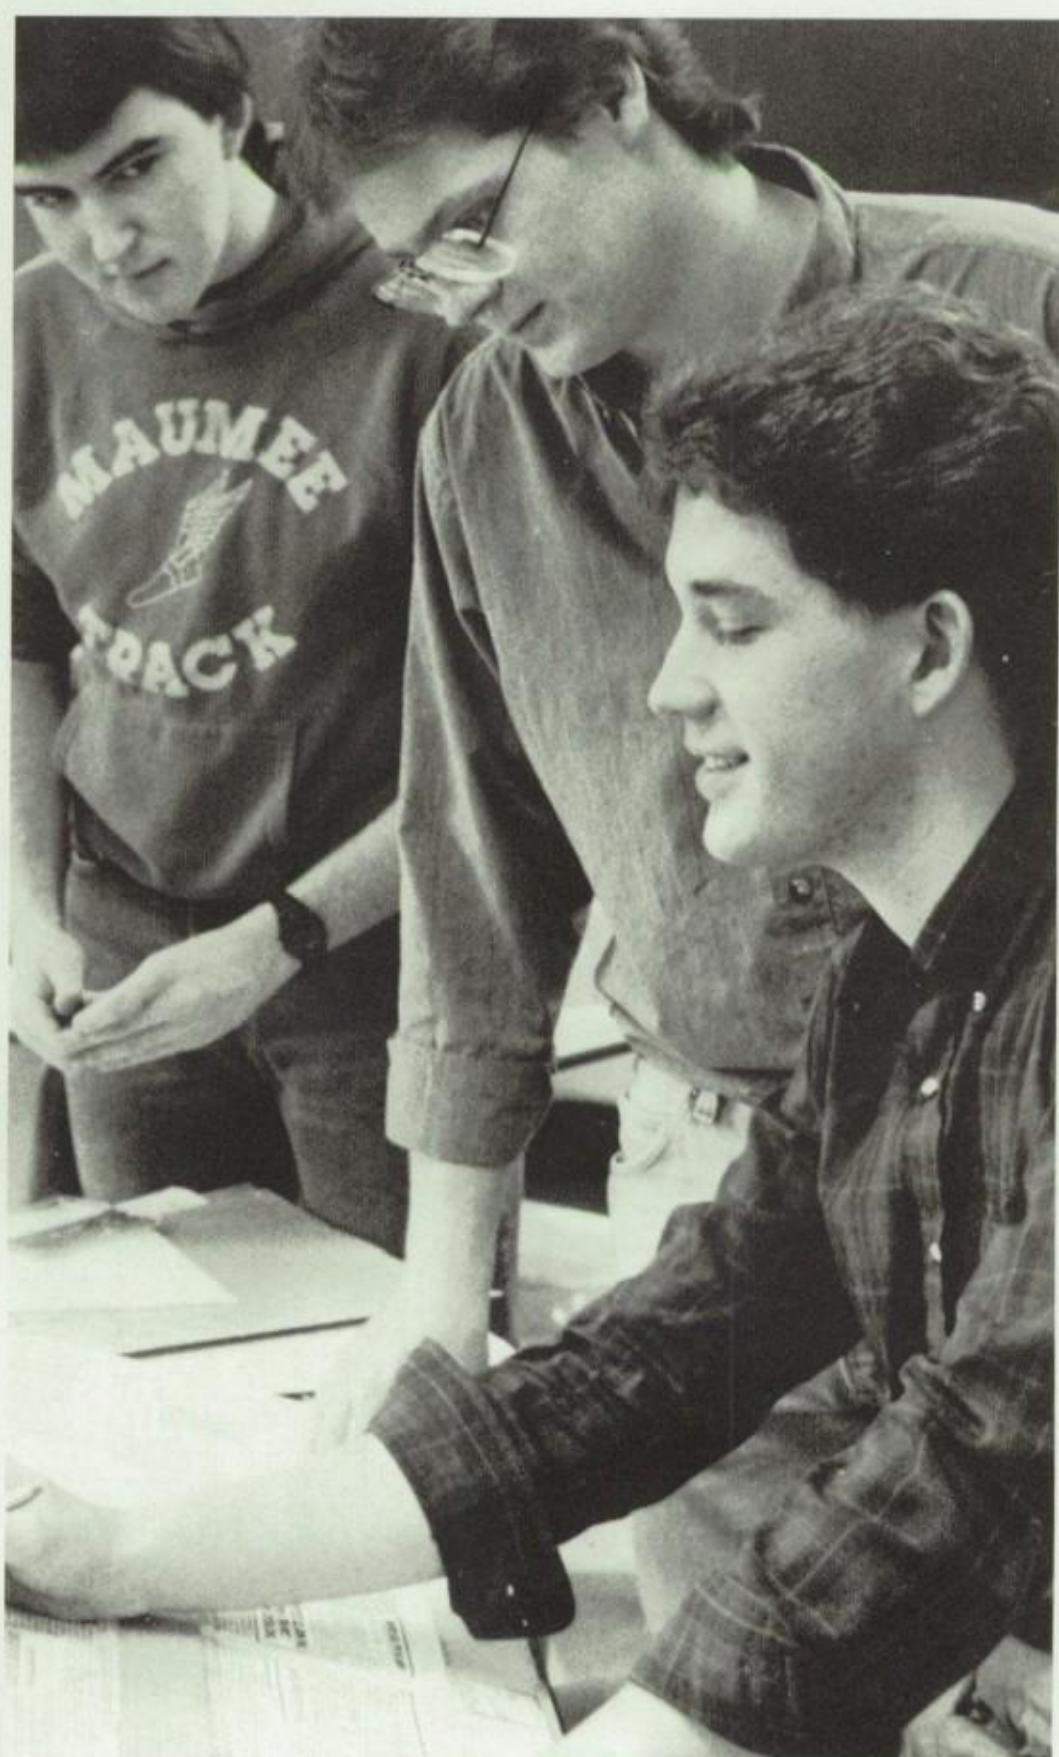

The International Thespians are a group of dedicated theatre people who have participated in every aspect of the theatrical world including acting, technical work, make-up, etc. This year's members were all seniors so a new group was inducted this spring to maintain the theatrical traditions at Maumee. These traditions started by thespians include the appearance of the birdcage in every play, the honor of the costume room aptly named The Quitain, and the selection of new members.

This year's president was Kathy Green and the other members of the club each held official positions.

Clockwise from top: Thespians Kathy Green, Amy Warne, JoAnne Allen, Jim Huddleston's back; Andi Veres; Rich Seymour; Rich Seymour as Mr. Darling; JoAnne Allen as the missus.

The Guardian Staff

In its second year, The Guardian had almost a completely new staff. Returning were Rich Seymour at Editor in Chief and John Fulton as News Editor. New editors were Rob Scheffert, Editorial; Kathleen E. Green, Feature; Jeff Frantz, Sports. The year was filled with fun and facts as Advisor Mr. Chris Blakely insisted on accuracy and excellence. Clockwise from upper left: The Guardian staff: Cindy Sanders, Chris Kaufman, John Rock, Rich Seymour, Kathleen E. Green, John Fulton, A. J. Fuller, Jeff Frantz. Not pictured: Rob Scheffert; A. J. Deca

Distributive Education Clubs of America, better known as DECA, gives students an opportunity to learn about the business world while actually working in it. The students attend school in the morning and then leave for their jobs after classes.

High School Quiz

Ski Club

The Ski Club has been in existence under Mr. Lauber for eight years. Usually, they go skiing several times during the three months of the season, but this year they only visited Blue Mountain. The thirty-nine students who went sold candy to defray the cost of the trip. For the first time in his memory, Mr. Lauber says that nobody was hurt. He also says that skiing is "... the most exciting exercise you'll ever get."

Thanks to the strong support of the student body, the Speech Team once again took its place among the successful clubs and activities of Maumee High School. In fact, it came to life with a bang as Coach Anna Ruggiero guided the team into the shoes of victory and occasionally defeat. As a whole, the team was among the top-ranked at tournaments in the categories of Dramatic and Humorous Interpretation, Prose and Poetry and Extemporaneous speaking. JoAnne Allen, Maddalena Fanelli and Andi Veres qualified for state competition. Capturing second in prose and poetry was Maddalena and fifth in dramatic was Andi Veres.

Debate

The 1985-86 debate topic, "Water Quality," led many team members to victory. Season highlights include senior team of Jim Parker and Mike Moran capturing second place at the Pittsburg-North Hills Invitational, one of the largest tournaments in the Mid-East. In addition, Mike Moran was selected as a Superior Senator at the Western Ohio Student Congress and earned the opportunity to attend the National Student Congress. This year's team was coached by alumna LeeAnne Barnes.

Fishing Club

The Fishing Club is one of the more adventurous Maumee organizations, and Maumee's only water-oriented activity. This year, the annual lure-making party was one of the more avid activities of the club. Advisors Mr. Lauber and Mr. Kuntz are the most avid Fishing Club participants. The walleye ran wild at the Maumee River for plenty of fishing outings.

The Foreign Language Clubs

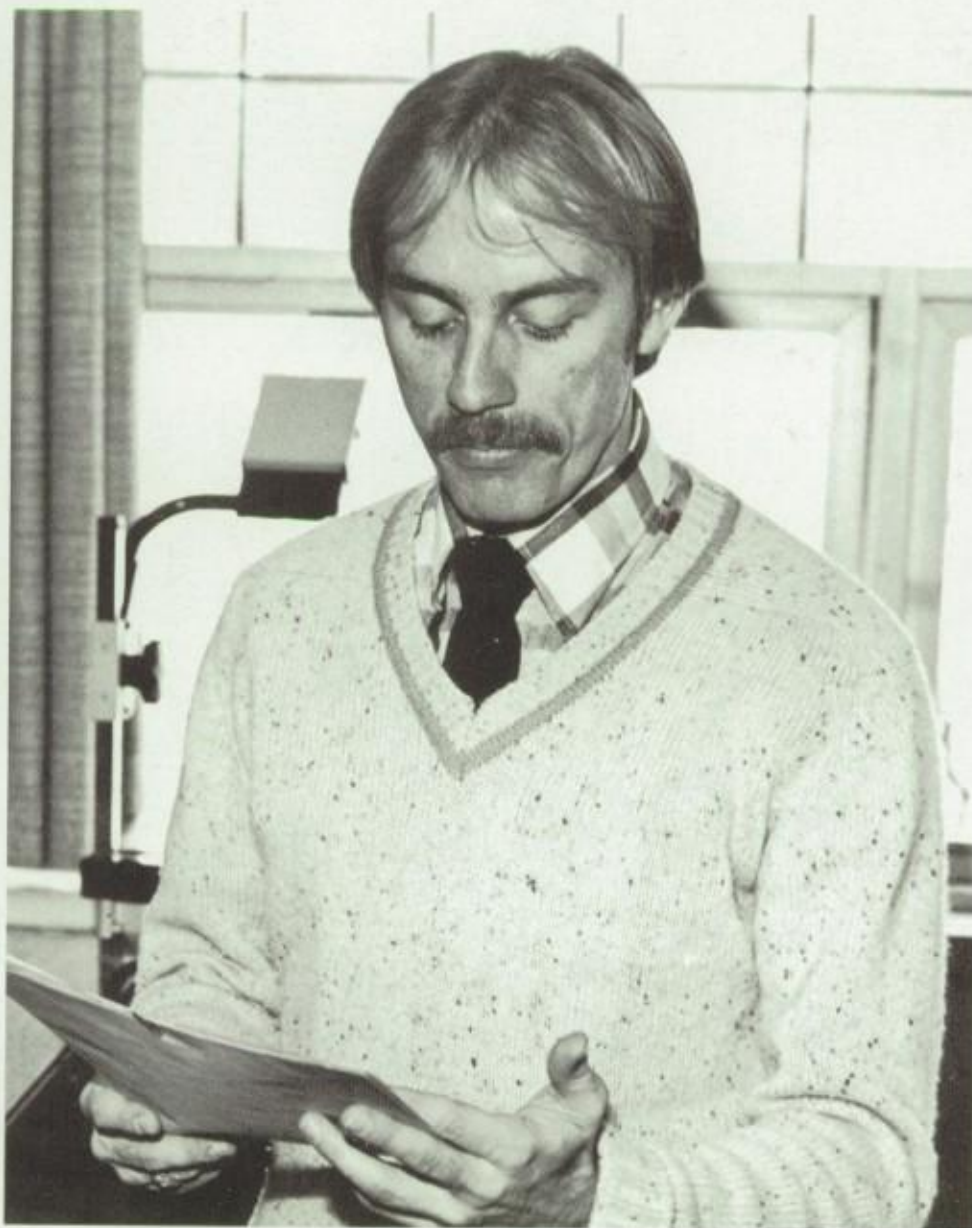

The French Club under the two presidents, Chrissy Beaugrand and Chris Mabrey, had an exciting year. They held parties where the members could eat their fill of French food and listen to French music. They spent the majority of the year preparing for Foreign Language Day at the University of Toledo where the club captured a variety of awards. The Spanish Club under Dirk Maisel also had a festive year. They had many Spanish parties at Christmas, Carnival, and at other times. The Club even sponsored a dance to raise money, as well as sold candy sticks. The Spanish Club used part of this money, $100, to help Mexico after the great earthquake destroyed the city.

The pictures are labeled clockwise from upper left: Miss Fellhauer is the advisor for the Spanish Club. She enjoys teaching the members about new culture; Anne Hover is one of the officers of French Club; Mr. Hafemann is proud to be the advisor for the French Club; The co-presidents of French Club are discussing a difficult decision; Dirk Maisel, the President of Spanish Club, with Brett Cope, another member; Karilee Laird is happy to be a member of French Club; Anne Hover and Chrissy Beaugrand are busy at work; Doug Devine is a member of French Club; The French Club members are busily working for Foreign Language Day.

Bicycle Club

Although the Ohio weather was often too dreary for scheduled rides to occur, the Bicycle Club did manage to take some jaunts across the Maumee Valley. Advised by Mr. Thomas Shook, the Bicycle Club is a way to have fun and exercise with fellow club members.

Athletic Managers

Parade Of Pride

The bands played, the crowd cheered, the Parade of Pride was underway. In the first Parade of Pride ever, Maumee citizens joined past and present students to celebrate the One Hundredth Commencement of Maumee High School. Mayor Harry Barlos spoke, as well as Superintendent David Abbott and Principal Lee A. Black. Each class was represented by class members carrying signs of their year. The parade route began at Union School, the first High School and passed by Gateway Middle School, the second high school and ended at the present Maumee High School stadium. Awards for the 5 kilometer race were given out at the competition of the parade. A horse drawn carriage led the parade.

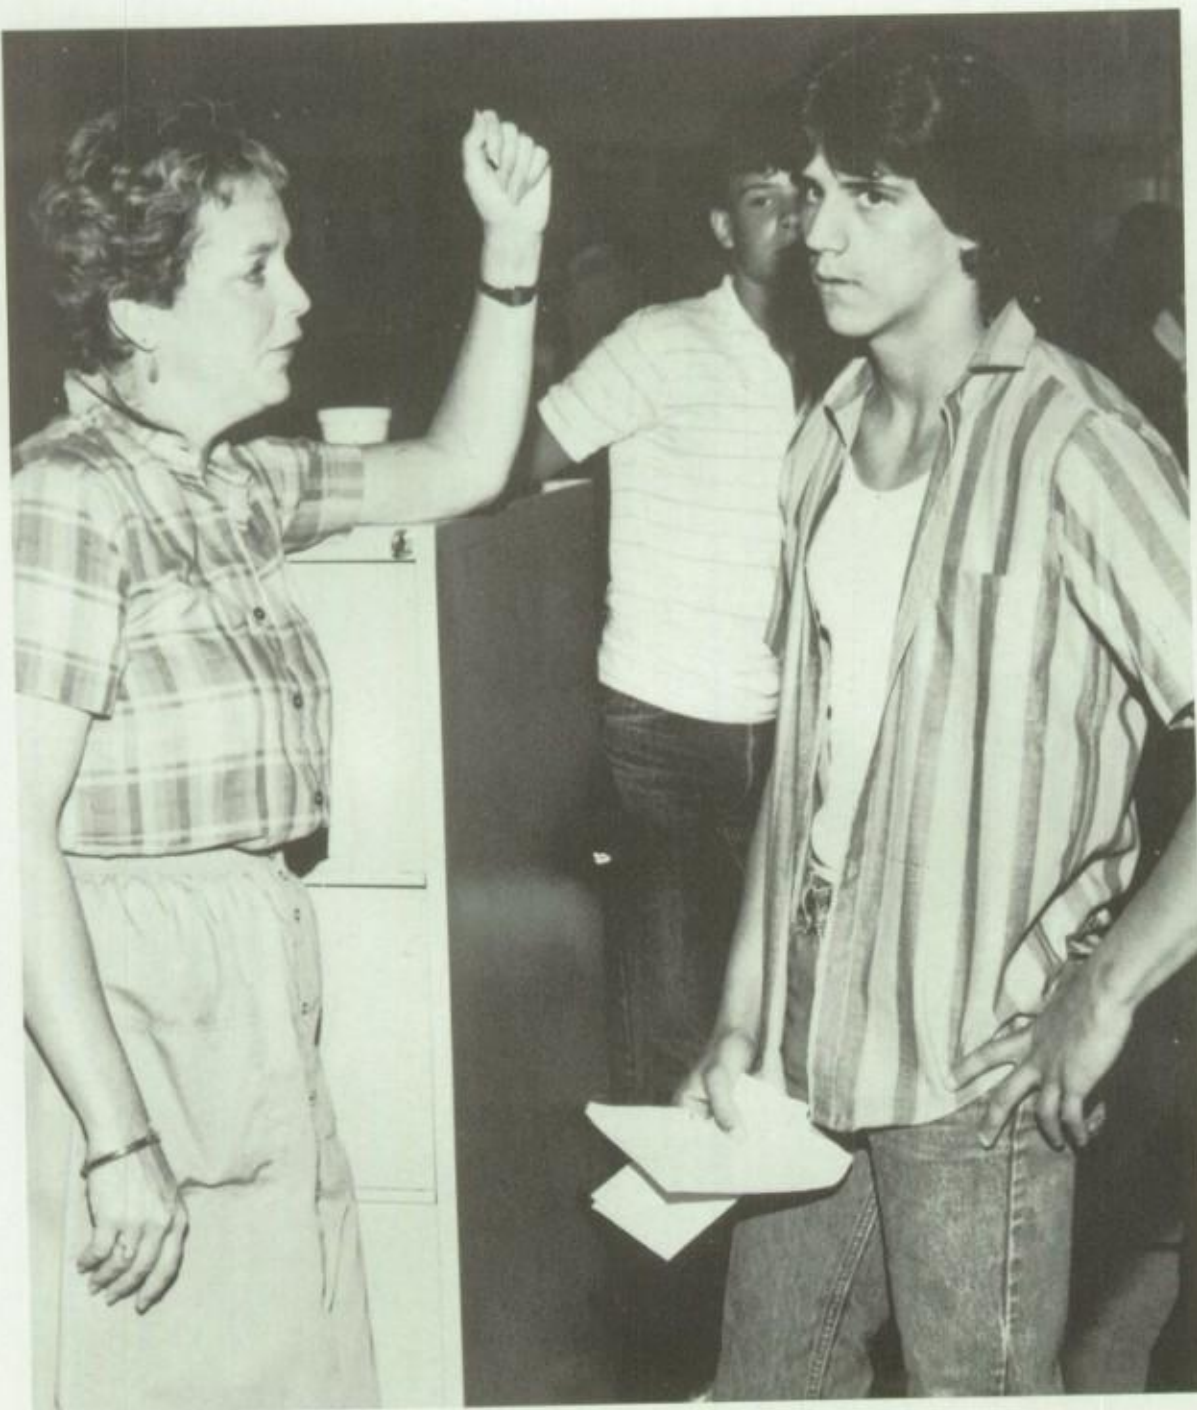

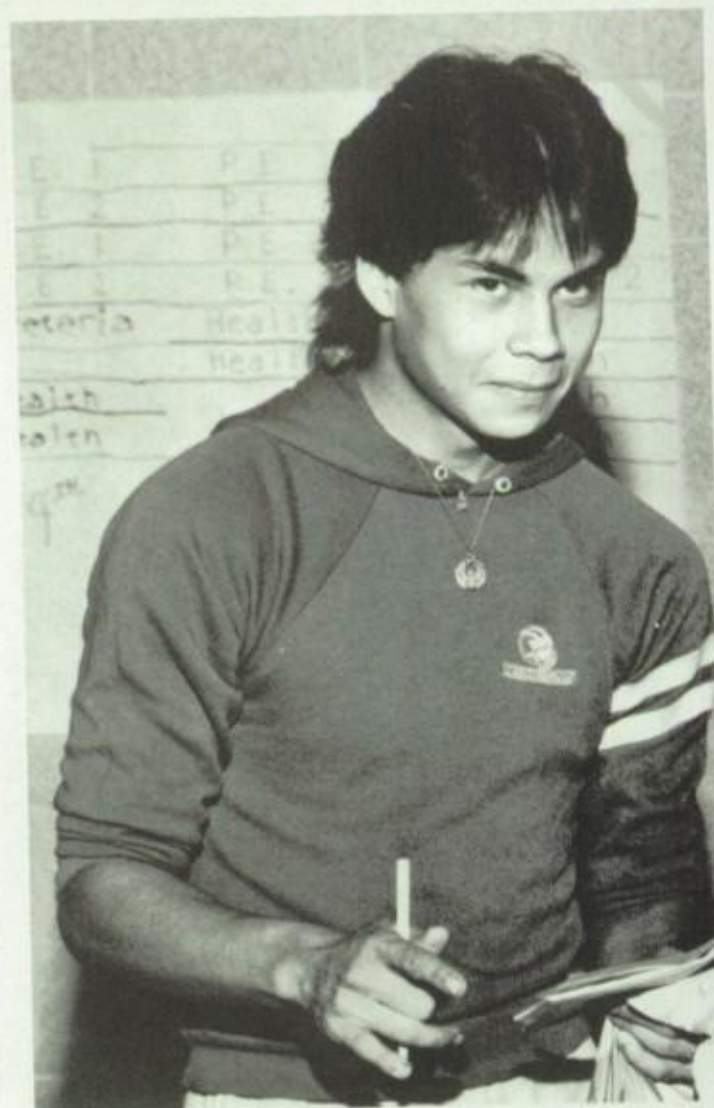

Activities

Open Registration

To many students, Open Registration is a bother and a waste of their dwindling moments of summer freedom. Yet this past year, when faced with its removal, most students grew upset, realizing that they would no longer be able to schedule with specific friends and teachers. By inviting parents to attend, open registration was continued, being counted as a school day and allowing the quota of days to be fulfilled.

Clockwise From Upper Left: Upperclassmen — glad to be back; Kathy Mulvihill and Julie Leary compare schedules; Mr. Lyons guides those in need; Dr. Siegel and Laura Nelson; Scoping in on the registration process.

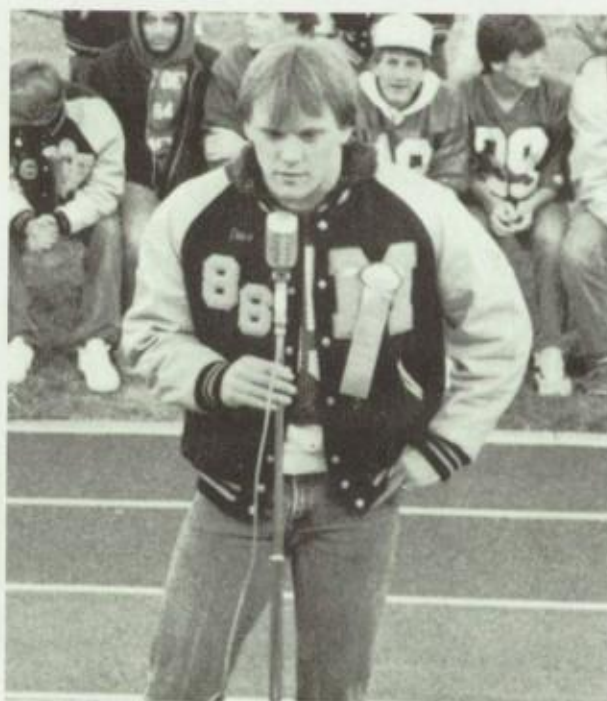

Pep Club Presents Snake Dance

This fall, taking advantage of a fair afternoon, the newly formed Pep Club, designed to raise school spirit and led by Miss. Heinze and Mrs. Leach, sponsored the Snake Dance. For the occasion everybody decided to leave his/her sophistication at home and instead make a rare public exposure of his/her true farm "core."

First Defeat For Seniors

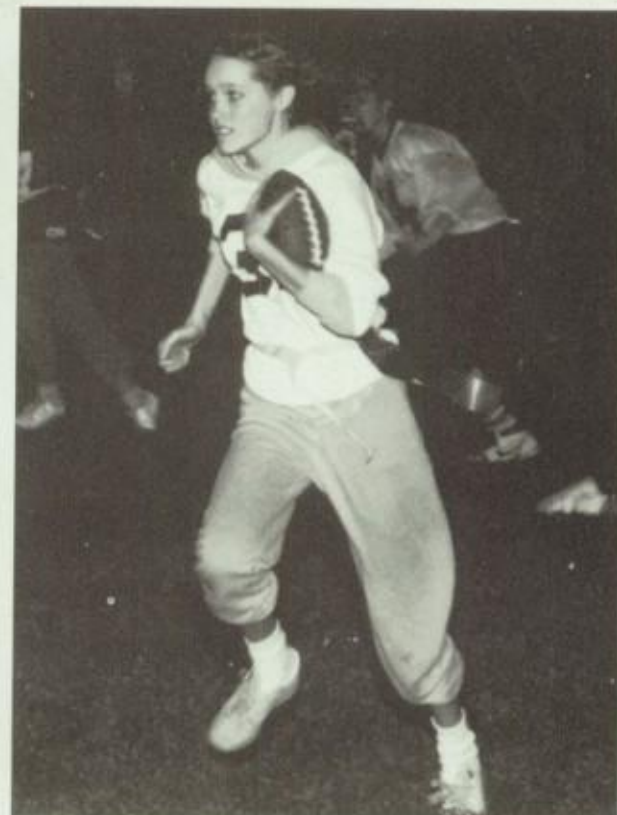

Powderpuff

This year's game took place on an extremely warm October night, quite unusual for Powderpuff. Thus, all were ready after hours of practice to put to good use their football skills.

The previously perfect winning record of the senior team was broken as the Junior-Soph team defeated the Senior-Frosh team 12-6. Sophomores Gayle Dean and Stacy Matthews scored touchdowns for the Junior-Sophs while senior Laura Ahrendt made her run down the field, scoring six for the Senior-Frosh. As always, the coaches and the cheerleaders were there to cheer the teams on toward victory. Proceeds from the game went to the Sunshine Children's Home.

Clockwise From Upper Left: the Junior-Sophs; Sandy Barnes making a hopeful run; Frosh QB; Shannon Boyles, handoff; a tackle in the making.

Tailgate Party

This year, preceding the Maumee-St. John football game Maumee High School sponsored a Tailgate Party, thus giving students from opposite sides of the field the chance to meet each other and together anticipate the outcome of the highly competitive event. All hoped the best for their own team; but, whatever the game's outcome, the party was a winner in itself.

Homecoming

This year's homecoming theme was "Emerald City," a wonderful place where dreams come alive. Jodi Pratt's dreams were realized when she was crowned Homecoming Queen. Indeed, everyone's fantasies came true during the football game and dance. The officers of the senior class did a splendid job on the decor for the event.

P-Burg Week

Twenty years from now, when we look back on high school days, most of the details will fade from our memories but one of the things everyone is sure to remember is the intense rivalry between Maumee and Perrysburg. Students do outrageous — even illegal — acts when the annual P-Burg week rolls around. Trying to keep the uproar as mild as possible, P-Burg week was turned into a “dress-up” week again this year ending with the traditional color day on Friday. New this year was an amusing pep rally sponsored by the Pep Club.

Clockwise From Top: Juniors Chrissy Beaugrand, Anne Hover, Leslie Berg, Beth Dooley and Kelly Hirth; Martha Weber cheers the Panther on; the many faces of Rod Bogdanski.

Peter Pan

J. M. Barrie's fantastic Peter Pan or The Boy Who Would Not Grow Up was presented as the fall play. It was staged by Gateway Middle School, complete with a flying Peter and a sixteen foot long crocodile.

The chorus doubled as mermaids and Indians. There was also a large cast of pirates and lost boys that added diversity to the production.

Following the example set last year, a large group of seniors guys tried out for the play, to be cast fittingly as pirates. It was difficult to decide whether they enjoyed the fight scenes or carrying the mermaids better.

Senior Sit-In

One of the biggest events of the year for Maumee High School, the "Senior Sit-in" drew local media attention at Maumee students protested having to attend school when most area schools were closed due to hazardous weather conditions.

The "Senior Sit-In" involved other students as well but was led by a group of seniors who deemed the snowy weather too bad for school attendance. Dr. Abbott, School Superintendent, came to the high school to speak with the students and hear their concerns. He said that he had made the decision to keep school open based on weather and road conditions that morning. He had not been aware of how much worse the conditions were to become.

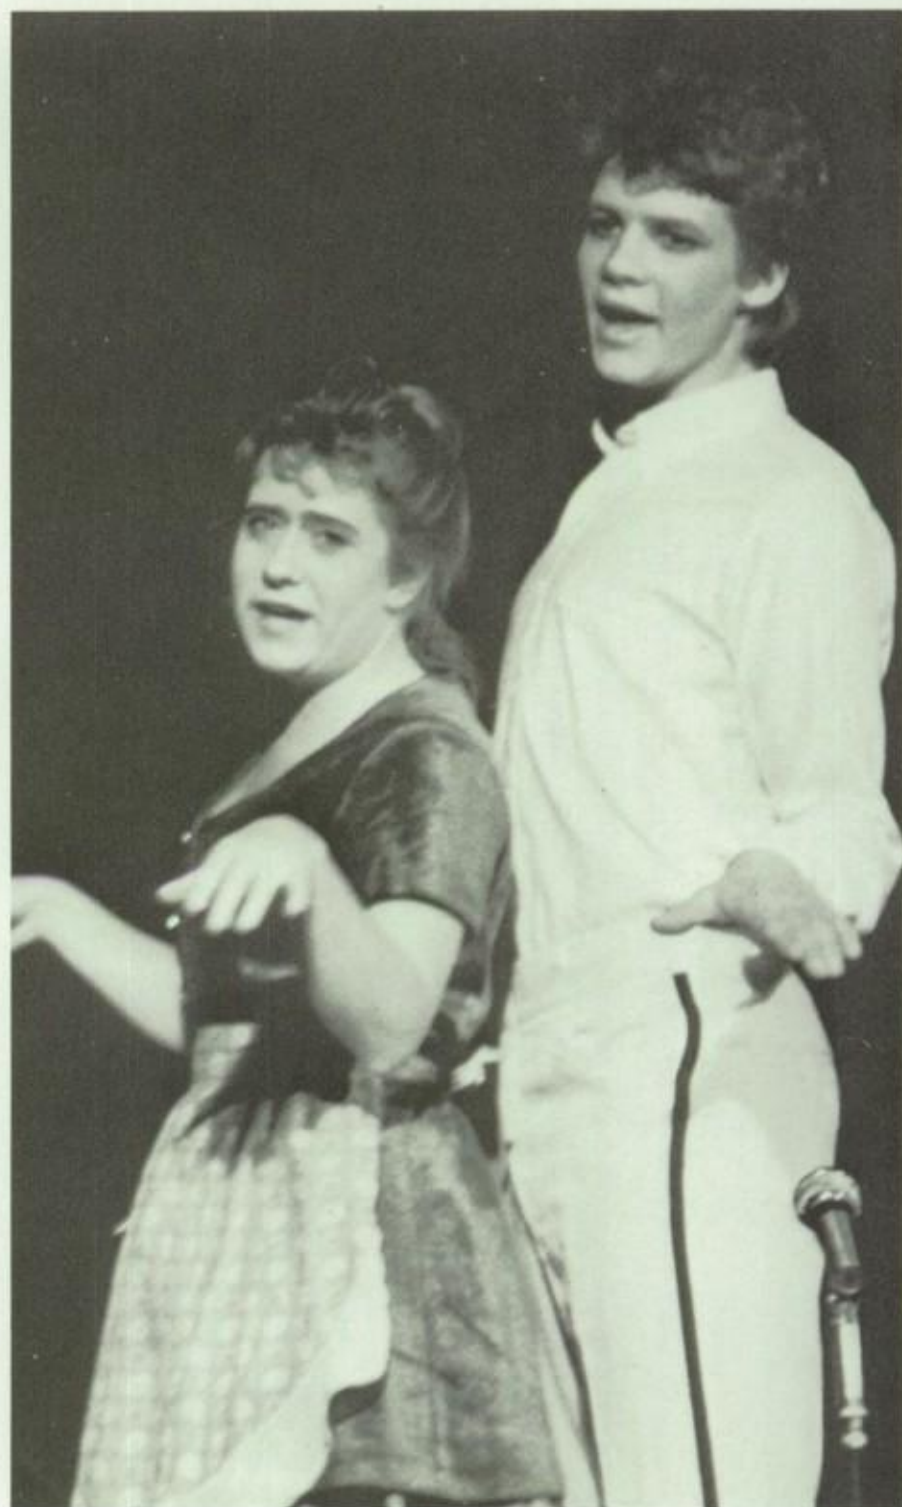

Many students left school after the "Sit-In" disassembled to hit the slopes of Fort Meigs for sledding. The leaders of the "Sit-In," however, for the most part remained in school.

The "Sit-In" was held in a peaceful and mature fashion on both the part of the students and the administration.

Clockwise from upper left: Mr. Black addressing the student body; the seniors sitting in; leaders and spokespeople for the Sit-In; Barb Billow speaks to fellow students.

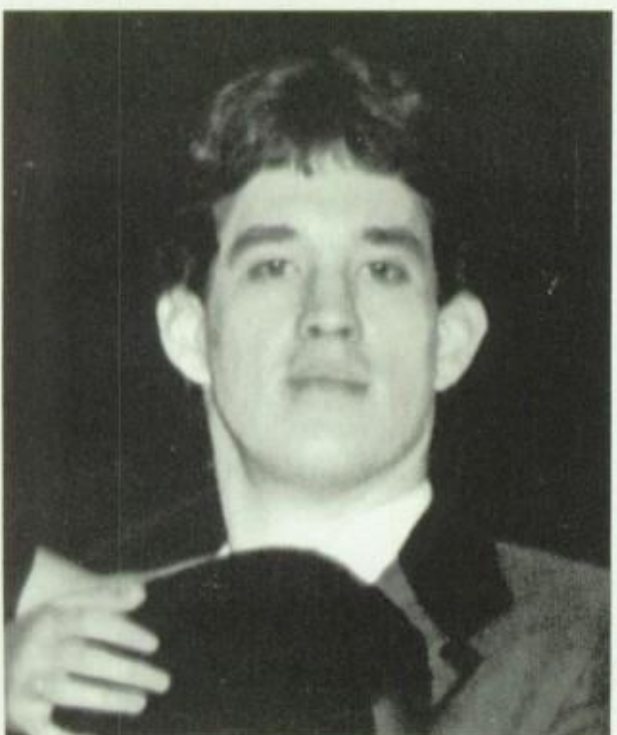

Funny Girl

Fanny Brice was a woman who was ugly yet glamorous, spontaneous and definitely funny. Amy Warren portrayed the life of this fantastic woman in the Drama Club's musical Funny Girl. Opposite Amy was Mike Recker in the role of Nick Arnstein. The fabulous musical about the life of Fanny Brice, Ziegfeld follies star, brought many new faces to Maumee Drama. The large chorus and the dancers held their own with the leading lady, ringing down the house with the musical number, "Rat-Tat-Tat-Tat."

Clockwise from upper left: the Ziegfeld Follies' brides; Amy Warren as Fanny Brice; JoAnne Allen and Chris VanDromme play Mrs. Brice and Eddie Ryan; director Jonnie Myers; Fanny.

“You Stole My Heart Away”

Amy Kwiatkowski and John Luscombe reigned over the Junior-Senior prom as Prom Queen and King. The night was filled with fun and romance as couples swayed to the music of Kaiser Sound. The prom theme, “You Stole My Heart Away,” was from a song by Lionel Ritchie. This year's prom was special because each couple received champagne flutes with the prom logo. The prom evening lasted all night for most people, beginning with dinner and ending with parties until dawn.

Cheerleaders

The position of cheerleader inspires awe in some, respect in others but a sense of spirit in all. To become a cheerleader takes hours of grueling practices, keeping grades up, making locker signs and the endless number of sporting events to cheer at. The cheerleaders never complain about cheering though, it seems like a joy for them always.

Soccer

The varsity soccer team finished the season with a 9-3-5 record for third place in the league behind Southview and Perrysburg respectively. Coach Hans Berkof said he felt the season went, "so-so," and that the team, "should have done better and could have done better."

In the first contest with rival Perrysburg, the Panthers were defeated 0-1. However, the Panthers did come back and take a 4-2 victory over the Yellow Jackets in the second game which was postponed until later in the season due to inclement weather conditions.

The girls' varsity volleyball team finished the season with a 14-7 record overall, 8-6 in the NLL. They started the season with a seven match winning streak and finished it by defeating Springfield and Cardinal Stritch in the last week of the season. Springfield was ranked first in Northwest Ohio when Maumee beat them in two games on their home court. The team went on to tournament action, winning their first match against Sylvania Northview.

Junior Erin Vick was selected first team NLL. Seniors Barb Billow and Brenda Billow were selected to the second team NLL and Captain Julie Evanoff, senior, received an honorable mention.

Girls Varsity Basketball

Last year was for the boys, but this year the ladies accomplished the almost impossible. The girls fought off competition to end the regular season with no losses, thus completing an incredible 20-0 season.

Coach Marty Kalmbach was voted the district AAA coach of the year.

Erin Vick was selected second team all-state, first team all-district and first team all-league.

Brenda Billow was selected second team all-district while Barb Billow received honorable mention all-district.

The Panthers continued their winning ways well into the class AAA tourney. The season, however, came to an abrupt end as the Notre Dame Eagles were able to down the ladies in the district finals thus giving the Panthers the district runner-up position.

Boys Varsity Basketball

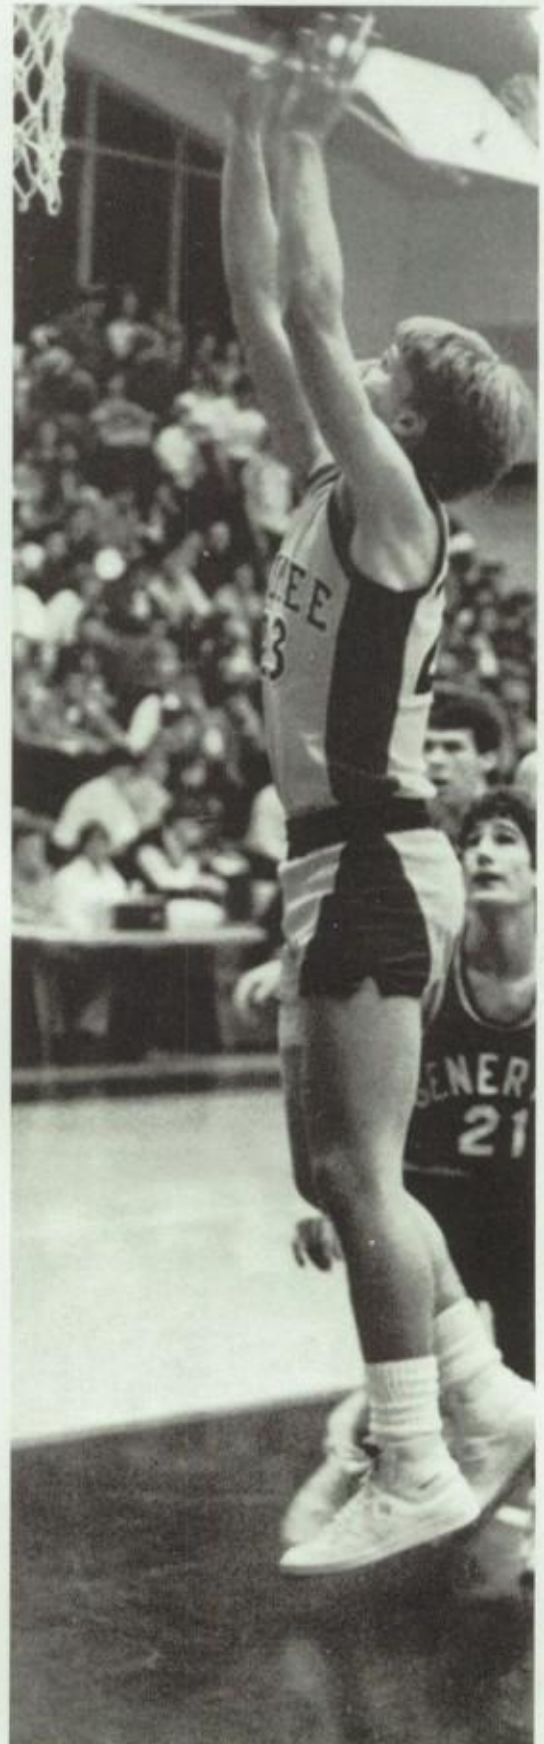

"All good things must come to an end." Whoever derived this statement was absolutely right. After completing last year's 20-0 season, the Panthers' 27 game win streak, which started late in the 83-84 season, came to an abrupt halt as the Eastwood Eagles were able to down the mighty Panthers.

The hopes of a new streak with the remaining 13 games were crushed by both Perrysburg and Rossford, with the Jackets needing an overtime and the Bulldogs needing two, in the last two games of regular season play.

The Class AAA Tournament brought the Panthers back to their winning ways. Maumee found its first two games a snap as it easily defeated Toledo Start and Bowsher each by 30 points for the Sectional Championship Title.

For the first time ever, a Maumee team found itself in the University of Toledo's Centennial Hall. The assignment was to take on the St. Francis Knights in the District Semi-Finals.

After the first half, the Panthers trailed by only one point. After regulation time had expired, both teams were in a deadlock which called for an overtime. The Panthers had possession of the ball late in the overtime but a St. Francis steal gave the Knights an easy lay-up and a foul shot. Unable to recover, Maumee fell to the Knights 52-55.

Although not winning very many meets, the boys and girls' track teams had several individuals who accomplished many feats. Beth Dooley set a new record in the discus with her throw of 119 feet 11 inches.

Tim Ninke and Matt Kinnee each broke records at the NLL league meet. Tim broke the 300 meter low hurdles record with a time of 38.4 which beat the old record of 38.5 set in 1983.

Matt jumped an incredible 6'5" in the high jump competition, toppling the old 1983 record of 6'4".

Softball

This season, like last, was a success for the varsity softball team. Although losing to Perrysburg twice during regular season action, the Panthers were, however, able to bury the Jackets in tournament action. The ladies went on to capture the class AAA district slot.

The season came to an end in Wooster, Ohio during regional play as the Panthers were downed.

CITY OF MAUMEE

Harry Barlos
Mayor

April 9, 1986

TO THE CLASS OF '86

"Every minute and every hour of the day from this day forward you will be confronted by choices, what will you do now to improve and use your talents. How will you choose your time today, tonight, tomorrow and tomorrow night and so through the weeks, months, and years? Will you decide to read some great literary work every week? Will you decide to take a constructive part in building up the community where you live?"

You will find the ability to decide, to make up your mind, to choose wisely and courageously under any circumstances is unquestionably one of the earmarks of greatness in men and women. It means the ability to choose between the wise and the foolish, between wasting time and using it wisely, between the safe and unsafe, the good and the bad.

I once saw a sign on a road construction site that read: "Take care which rut you choose; you will be in it for the next fifty miles." One would like to say that to every young man and woman. Take care the kind of life you choose, you will be in it for the next fifty years. Choose life without vision, without courage, without depth and breadth to your life and it will simply be a blind experience. But make those decisions daily that give direction, meaning and character to life and it will be a great adventure."

by Herbert V. Prochnow

Congratulations on your graduation.

Mr. Arlen
Brubaker

Mr. Joseph
Morin

With Appreciation and Thanks

The 1985-86 Reflector is dedicated to Mr. Arlen Brubaker and Mr. Joseph Morin, both of whom are retiring from Maumee.

Mr. Brubaker began his 26-year career at Maumee as a Latin teacher as well as a teacher of mathematics. When Latin was dropped from the curriculum, he took on a full mathematics course load. He has served as a chairperson of the mathematics department and advisor of the math club. While teaching at Maumee, Mr. Brubaker taught night classes at the Owens Community College.

Mr. Morin's career has spanned 27 years in which he has taught music in the Maumee Schools. In addition to conducting the high school orchestra and at times the choir, Mr. Morin was head of the music department. Music experience outside of the schools includes playing the violin and composing for the Toledo Symphony Orchestra and playing in many pit orchestras for area theatrical performances.

Both Mr. Brubaker and Mr. Morin have had five children graduate from Maumee City Schools. They are a part of Maumee that has strived to maintain excellence. Their dedication inspires students and fellow workers. They will, indeed, be missed.

Ken,
Hi! I'm honored to be the first one to sign your

some time, wouldn't you say? I wish you all the luck in the whole world.
Good luck at college.
Your friend,

A photograph of a large group of students standing in a grid pattern on a grassy field, likely a schoolyard. The students are dressed in casual attire, including sweaters, jackets, and jeans. In the background, there are trees and a building. Overlaid on the photograph are several handwritten notes in black ink, some enclosed in speech bubbles or circles. A drawing of a stick figure is also present in the upper right corner. The notes include: "Are you here", "HEY!", "What's this spelled right?", "I am not moving you move", "No way back", "Wow a circle", "Are we getting paid for this?", "REALLY THIS IS EARLY morning exercises!", and "HAVE FUN! In the years to come!". The drawing is a simple stick figure with a large head and a small body, standing with arms outstretched. The overall tone is humorous and playful.
